OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

A. Investment-Related Businesses and Occupations

I am registered as an investment adviser representative of Ausdal Financial Partners, Inc. ("Ausdal"), which is registered as an investment adviser with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). I am also registered as a securities representative of Ausdal in its capacity as an introducing broker-dealer registered with the SEC and state securities authorities, member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and SIPC. I am also appointed by various insurance companies to sell insurance products.

As a securities representative of Ausdal, I may recommend that you buy or sell securities (such as mutual funds) or insurance products (such as fixed annuities) which are entirely separate from investments made for your advisory account. For these separate brokerage or insurance recommendations, I will receive customary brokerage or insurance commissions or similar compensation. In many cases, the compensation from mutual funds and variable insurance products will include an initial commission or sales charge, plus on-going "12b-1 fees" or similar types of compensation that will continue for as long as you own the investment. For certain types of investments, a portion of the compensation may be deferred until you sell the investment (this is generally limited to particular investment classes).

Ausdal works to manage these conflicts of interest by disclosing them in this Brochure Supplement and emphasizing that you are under no obligation to purchase any brokerage or insurance products I recommend, nor are you under any obligation to hire Ausdal to provide investment advisory services I recommend. At any time, you may choose to obtain the same (or similar) products or services from other broker-dealers, insurance agencies, or financial institutions, who may charge less for their services.

Please ask me about the compensation I will receive from any brokerage or insurance products or services you purchase, or from investment advisory services Ausdal and I provide. I have an obligation to tell you and you have a right to know how much you are paying us for the financial products and services you purchase.

IMPORTANT: As part of my fiduciary obligation to you, I must disclose that my activities as a securities representative create a potential conflict of interest because, in certain situations, they may reduce the time I am available for my investment advisory clients. Additionally, the possibility of receiving additional compensation from selling securities or insurance products to you provides an economic incentive for me to recommend these brokerage or insurance products and services based on the compensation I will receive rather than on your investment needs. This is a conflict of interest that you should consider.

Finally, please remember that many financial products, such as mutual funds and annuities are sold by prospectus. If you purchase a product that has a prospectus (or in some cases, a summary disclosure document), be sure to read it. It will contain a description of the risks of the investment, as well as the fees and expenses of the investment, and the compensation that brokers and others are being paid.

B. Other Substantial Businesses or Occupations for Compensation

In Item B., disclose any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item A, above which provides a substantial source of income or involves a substantial amount of time.
